BALI 1, 2, 3...

1. SANUR

There is no road along this east coast beachfront, which adds to the tranquillity. The narrow beach is protected by a reef and water sports include: windsurfing, skiing, parasailing and snorkelling. The village is filled with boutiques, art and craft stores and antique shops.

2. NUSA DUA

Nusa Dua is regarded as the top-end beach resort of Bali - with a dazzling array of luxury hotels, most with direct beach access. The beaches are top-notch and vendor-free, with quaint restaurants and entertainment venues dotted along the main road.

3. TJ BENOA

Tanjung Benoa, locally known as TJ Benoa, is located just north of Nusa Dua and extends from Buala village to Benoa village. There are a number of dive operators at the tip of the peninsula as well as water sports facilities including: skiing, parasailing and jet skiing.

4. JIMBARAN

Jimbaran Bay is a superb crescent of wide beach and blue sea. The north end of the beach is home to a village with brightly coloured boats at anchor. The beach is a popular sunset venue with multiple vendors selling local delicacies for a barefoot dinner.

5. KUTA

Kuta Beach is situated on the western side of the island and is undeniably the most famous beach in Bali. At night the restaurants, bars and discos are full of revellers until late. This is also home to craft markets and Bali's premier water park - Waterbom Bali.

6. LEGIAN

Legian is north of Kuta and is also home to a sandy white beach. While it is regarded as a little quieter than its neighbour. The nightlife is equally as exciting. Popular attractions include: Double Six Beach, Waterbom Bali water park and colourful craft galleries.

7. SEMINYAK

Seminyak appeals to those who prefer a small-town atmosphere and offers a gentler pace with small, quality restaurants and entertainment venues as well as peaceful walks on the beach overlooked by nearby rice paddy fields.

8. UBUD

Ubud lies in the interior of the island. This is home to temples and holy sites, bustling craft markets, outdoor restaurants and verdant green rice paddy fields clinging onto the sides of steep hills. No holiday to Bali would be complete without a visit to Ubud.

BALI SIGHTSEEING EXPERIENCES

1

▶ 1. KINTAMANI TOUR (9 HOURS)

The Kintamani Tour is designed to introduce you to the Balinese culture and crafts. Dance forms a central feature of Balinese culture - the first stop on the tour immerses the visitors into Barong and Keris dance, which is performed at a small open-air theatre with a Gamelan orchestra.

The tour then explores markets with traditional Balinese crafts, including - woodcarvings, paintings, batiks and elaborate gold ware and silverware. We then visit the Elephant cave, found at an ancient Monastery dating back to the 11th century.

The highlight of the day is Kintamani - the top of a volcanic caldera with breath-taking views of the crater lake, lava flows and volcanic peaks. Beautiful scenes of the Balinese countryside await on the journey back.

▶ 2. ULUWATU KECAK AND DINNER AT JIMBARAN BAY

Explore the Ululate temple with its panoramic views and get to see the Monkey dance, which originates from an ancient ritual dance - used to convey wishes to ancestors. This truly unique Balinese experience is accompanied by a choir of one hundred men. The tour ends with an evening drive to the famous Jimbaran Bay for a romantic seafood dinner on the beach.

2

▶ 3. UBUD - HALF DAY

This tour explores a well-known shopping area for the array of Balinese crafts. Visitors can soak up the woodcarvings, traditional paintings, batiks printed on local cloth as well as the intricate gold ware and silverware. Visitors may also explore the iconic terraces in Tegal Lalang and the monkey forest.

▶ 4. DEVDAN SHOW

“Devdan -Treasure of the Archipelago” is a magnificent and daring show at the Bali Nusa Dua Theatre and showcases Bali’s rich and diverse cultures utilising stunning illusion, dazzling costumes, contemporary cultural dances as well as heart-stopping aerial acrobatics performances. The 90 minute mega-production has been labelled as a “must-see”, taking the audience on a magical journey across Bali and beyond to the Archipelago of Indonesia.
